Position # 0001-4002
Requisition # 507534

Classification Title: Extension Agent I, II, III, or IV and County Extension Director

Application deadline: 12 July 2018

Job Description:
The Florida Cooperative Extension Service is a partnership between state, federal, and county governments that provides quality, relevant education and research-based expertise to foster healthy people, a healthy environment, and a healthy economy. We are the resource that helps educate Floridians to address issues related to agriculture, horticulture, natural resources, youth development, families and communities.

University of Florida/IFAS Extension and Desoto County seek to fill a permanent-status accruing, full-time Extension Agent position with a self-starting, energetic, team-oriented individual who will also serve as County Extension Director (CED; 20-30%). The educational responsibilities of this agent encompass strong leadership with respect to Livestock/Agriculture OR 4-H Youth Development (65-75%). For Agent positions not assigned to 4-H Youth there is an expectation of active participation in the 4-H Youth Development program in the area of expertise (5%).

As an educator, you will lead through the design, implementation, and evaluation of educational programming that meet the needs of the county’s diverse population in the selected programmatic area. If 4-H is the primary subject area, the faculty member will be expected to provide leadership and volunteer management in accordance with UF Extension 4-H guidelines, policies and procedures.

As the CED, you will lead, manage, supervise, coordinate and report on the total county extension program while maintaining, fostering and building effective working relationships with advisory committee, stakeholders, county government, community leaders, private sector clientele, media, government agencies, county residents, and UF/IFAS faculty, staff and extension administration.

You will use resourcefulness, creativity, enthusiasm, and innovation to strengthen current educational programs while reviewing and implementing new policies, maintaining records, assessing risks, communicating and marketing effectively across social media platforms, managing financial resources, and creating educational materials and opportunities for Desoto County.

This role provides the opportunity to make a positive impact in the Desoto County community as you work with extension faculty, staff and stakeholders. You will also collaborate with the District Extension Director and other Southwest CEDs on multi-county projects and serve as a role model to the community.

Minimum requirements:
For the Livestock/Agriculture specialty, a successful candidate will have earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees in animal science, agriculture, natural resources, agronomy, or a closely related field (one degree must be in animal science). For the 4-H Youth Development specialty, the candidate will have these degrees in youth development, education, community development/sociology, agriculture, natural resources, or a closely related field. At least 3 years of professional extension experience or equivalent is necessary. A flexible schedule that allows for irregular hours is necessary. A valid driver’s license as well as national background screening is a requirement of this position.

Preferred qualifications:
Previous CED experience or equivalent is preferred. Experience in creating lesson plans, developing instructional materials, and applying teaching methods appropriate for the audience is highly desirable. Expertise in getting groups to work together for a higher goal, managing competing priorities, and adaptability to handle unexpected situations is a plus for this role. You must be an effective written, verbal and listening communicator, feel comfortable presenting in front of small and large crowds, be able to establish solid partnerships, and find innovative ways to attract new audiences.

Further information:
Extension is a partnership between state, federal, and county governments to provide scientific knowledge and expertise to the public. As such, all partners are involved in the supervision of the office and contribute to the salary and support resources. The primary goal of Extension is to disseminate the latest knowledge and applicable technologies in agriculture, human and natural resources, and the life sciences in order to sustain and enhance the quality of human life. The UF/IFAS mission is accomplished through extension faculty members, scientists, educators, administrative staff, and volunteers working cohesively throughout Florida’s 67 counties.

Desoto County is a small, rural, community. This interior Florida County consists of approximately 639 square miles, providing many activities for nature enthusiasts, such as boating, canoeing, swimming, and golf. Agriculture and related industries are the primary employer for this close-knit community of approximately 36,000 residents. The city of Arcadia is the county seat. The county has easy access to the coastal communities of Bradenton/Sarasota and Punta Gorda/Fort Myers.
