Position # 0002-1689
Requisition # 492909

4-H Youth Development Extension Agent I or II
University of Florida/IFAS Extension at Gilchrist County
Trenton, FL (Northeast Extension District)

Duties and Responsibilities
University of Florida/IFAS Extension and Gilchrist County seek to fill a 12-month, permanent status-accruing faculty position as 4-H Youth Development Extension Agent. The agent will:

- Plan, develop, implement, evaluate, and report on a comprehensive county 4-H Youth Development program in cooperation with local citizens, extension faculty colleagues, agencies, and organizations that are concerned with the needs and well-being of area youth.
- Develop, sustain, and monitor the effectiveness of a volunteer system to staff the 4-H program including recruitment, volunteer staff development, and evaluation/recognition in support of the development and operation of the Gilchrist County 4-H program.
- Establish a local advisory committee and maintain an effective county 4-H Association.
- Target programs to achieve program balance reflective of the county’s population diversity and to address the unique educational needs of county residents.
- Provide leadership for securing and managing private financial resources to support 4-H programming and ensure compliance with UF/IFAS Extension financial policies.
- Provide leadership for the management of all program components including program policies, enrollments and records, risk management, communications, and educational materials.
- Develop creative works (including presentations, posters, website development, and videos), write non-technical, people-friendly publications, and participate in professional societies.
- Assume responsibility for handling 4-H program fund collections, including proper receipt and deposit of cash and checks with accompanying documentation.
- Establish and maintain an effective system for accountability and public information to all relevant individuals, groups, organizations, and agencies.
- Be expected to have or develop an area of expertise to share across county lines.
- Follow all university and county policies and procedures regarding affirmative action, program development, and reporting parity.
- Ensure that all Florida 4-H youth protection policies are adhered to by screening and training all 4-H volunteers as instructed by Florida 4-H guidelines.
• Assume other assignments and responsibilities in support of the total Extension program as assigned by the County Extension Director and District Extension Director.

The successful candidate must demonstrate the ability to:
• Design, implement, and evaluate community-based educational programs based on needs assessment with input from the county 4-H Association and community members.
• Manage volunteer systems and apply experiential education and community development methods.
• Work with community agencies and groups in collaborations and partnerships.
• Work with and enhance strong local advisory committees.
• Develop and maintain good media relations.
• Work cooperatively with youth and adults as a leader and team member.
• Work independently with minimal supervision.

In addition, the county faculty member must possess good verbal, written and listening communication skills; have qualities of resourcefulness, creativity, enthusiasm and innovativeness; be willing to seek extramural funding, and have good organizational development and management skills. Knowledge and experience with computer technology are essential. Previous experience with 4-H as a member, leader, or agent and experience with 4-H clubs, camps, school enrichment, and afterschool programs is desirable.

Candidates will be reviewed as applications are received, but please be aware that interviews might not be scheduled until 4 to 6 weeks after the position closing date.

Qualifications
A bachelor’s degree is required; a master’s degree is preferred. If hired with a bachelor’s degree only, significant progress towards obtaining a master’s degree is expected within 6 years of employment. The degree must be from an accredited college or university in youth development, education, community development/sociology or a related field. Candidate must be willing to work irregular hours and weekends; occasional overnight travel is required. Must be able to obtain a Florida Driver’s license; must be willing to travel using personal transportation. Employment is contingent upon the results of a national background screening. The successful candidate must also complete a physical exam, drug screening, and background check required by the Gilchrist County Board of County Commissioners.

Other information

The County is bordered by the Santa Fe River to the north and the Suwannee River to the west. The County has “A” rated schools in Trenton and Bell. The University of Florida is 30 miles to the east.
Application Instructions

Apply through the online UF application system at https://jobs.ufl.edu (search for requisition # 492909), and attach your Resume or CV, as well as a cover letter that describes how your experience and qualifications have prepared you for this position.

TO COMPLETE YOUR APPLICATION, PLEASE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING:

You must submit unofficial copies of all transcripts and/or coursework of your academic degrees. You may attach these as an "other" document, or you may submit to our office as directed below. An unofficial copy is acceptable for the application process, but before you can be hired, IFAS Human Resources must have the official transcript for your highest degree on file. Also, all applicants must have at least three reference rating forms on file. Reference forms must be less than one year old. If you have not already done so, please contact your professional/academic references and ask that they complete a reference rating form on your behalf. The form is located at http://personnel.ifas.ufl.edu/ref_form.pdf.

Please also complete and submit the Previous Employment Form (located at http://personnel.ifas.ufl.edu/prev_employment.pdf).

With the exception of official transcripts, all items submitted by mail must be postmarked no later than the next business day after the position closing date. All documents submitted by fax or email must be received no later than the next business day. If your official transcripts will arrive after the closing date, you must also submit unofficial transcripts by the deadline.
